SUMMER HOMES.

Prospective Tours of the Flitters.

Where They Are Going to Seek Rest and Recreation.

A Slight Suspicion of Doubt That These Plans Will Ever Be Really Carried Out.

Where are you going to spend the summer?

Summer is a long way off, to be sure but it's dollars to buttons you have your July and August saunterings already mapped out. You have probably written a dozen letters to landlords to arrange terms for board and fresh milk, pure country air, free from mosquitos and malaria. You have undoubtedly made up your mind just where you will spend the summer, and here is your chance to tell us what the favored spot of your choice is.

Don't fear to be the first to speak. If any one is too modest to answer first, we will break the ice by speaking right up.

Wherever you are we will be with you on the usual terms, and change your address as often as needed.

Now, where are you going?

Last summer you were at the beach. Are you going again? No, you think you will not. The girls have strolled every mile of sand from Santa Cruz to Monterey; they have learnt to swim like merladies, they have danced at the Del Monte and clambaked at Salinas. The beach has nothing new for the girls, and so it happens that this year you will tackle the mountains.

Perhaps you were up in the redwoods last summer. As you look back upon it you lose sight of all the delights of the forest, you forget the airs steeped in the balms of the giant trees, you remember only that the fishing did not come up to your expectations, your only vivid recollection is of that wood tick which gave you so much pain. You, then, will undoubtedly go to the shore, and the sea folk will take the place you once filled in the Russian river country.

Now, speak up and say where you are going to spend this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hale, now in southern California, will occupy a cottage at Blythedale during the summer.

W. J. Keating — Monterey, to be sure.

F. B. Ogden—"I am more fond of hunting than anything else and will probably go out after deer. The fall is the best time to hunt, and if I don't go in July I shall probably go off in September." Mr. Ogden prefers the wilds of north Mendocino or Humboldt county near the coast.

Mayor Glascock—I am undecided whether I shall go any place this summer. The past three summers I have gone to Cisco, a place about twelve miles this side of the summit on the Central Pacific. The probabilities are that if I go any place this year it will be that place.

School Superintendent McClymonds—I shall remain the greater part of the summer in Oakland attending to my official duties. I may take a run for a week or so to the foothills, but Oakland will see me the greater part of the vacation.

Samuel P. Hall—I have not decided upon the place where I will go this summer. But I can give you this pointer—it will be a place where fishing is good; yes, it will be a place where the fishing is good.

George D. Metcalf of Metcalf & Metcalf—Neither of the Metcalfs has decided upon his summer trip—it is a little too far in the future. But then, of course, we are going to take a short vacation somewhere.

Mrs. Lillencrantz has already gone for a trip to the country.

Mrs. Edward P. Taylor will go East some time in May.

Charles Alden—I have not made up my mind just where I shall go yet, but think of going to Monterey with my wife for a week or so.

R. M. Fitzgerald—I will probably have to stay at home this year, but if not, I shall probably go off camping somewhere near by.

Miss Florence Bartling will spend the summer with friends in Nevada City.

C. L. Colvin—I intend to spend a portion of the summer in the Santa Cruz mountains.

Thomas Graber—I have some mining interests in Nevada county which I have never yet seen, and I may take a run up to that place. If not, I may go to Alaska.

Jacob Harris and family will visit at Monterey next month.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Upham will spend a short time at the Hotel Vendome, San Jose, this summer.

Joseph Harris and wife will spend a few weeks at Los Gatos.

Miss Lottie Playter is now visiting friends in Los Gatos.

M. Wilder of this city will go to Gilroy next week.

Miss Florence Parker will spend a part of the summer in San Jose.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Bidwell, after spending the winter in Oakland, have returned to their mountain home in Greenville, Plumas county, for the summer.

J. E. McElrath—I shall spend the summer, sir, superintending the picking of cherries of the Royal Ann and Black Tartarian varieties upon my demesne near North Temescal.

Hiram Luttrell—I am not going anywhere. I intend to stay right here in Oakland until I learn whether I am a City Justice or what I am.

W. W. B. Stevens—I am going housekeeping this summer. "We" will leave for a trip south after the 18th inst., when the happy event will occur.

Harry B. Houghton is wise enough to have omitted to make up his mind.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Hickman will spend a few months at their ranch in the San Joaquin valley.

Mrs. J. P. Bidwell and her daughter, Miss Alice Bidwell, who have formerly resided in Greenville, intend to spend the summer in Oakland.

Miss Grace Bartling will go to Sacramento in June.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Quinn are at Skaggs Springs, where they expect to stay during a part of the summer.

Mrs. McClure, who has been visiting friends and relatives in Oakland, was called to Phoenix by telegraph.

Miss Ella M. Tompson has arrived in Charles City, Ia., where she will stop with friends before continuing her journey to Madison, Wis.

Lincoln S. Church—I presume I'll spend my time right here. I may go off for a few weeks somewhere.

Judge Laidlaw—I don't know whether the new charter will let me off. I may take a run up into the Yosemite valley. I have been within twenty miles of the valley and never had a chance to get inside. I surveyed all around that country but never had time to get into the valley. I have seen the head waters of the San Joaquin, which perhaps is finer than the Yosemite. It it nothing but a sheer descent through a gorge of granite. It is a magnificent sight.

A. A. Moore, Mrs. Moore, and daughter, Miss Ethel, will go East in June. They expect to be gone about six weeks.

W. S. Harlow will spend his summer at the Sheriff's office.

Thomas M. Robinson and wife will spend their vacation in Vacaville.

J. J. Hanifin Jr. will go to Lake Tahoe.

Myron Whidden intends to take a trip to Tahoe.

Murray Gilcrest and wife will spend the summer in Sonoma county.

Charles T. Boardman will spend his summer among Pleasanton, Sunol, and Haywards.

Robert Edgar will take a trip to Tahoe.

Henry P. Squire will not leave Oakland this year.

C. H. Whitton and wife will spend their vacation on their ranch at San Jose.

C. H. Ayers and wife will spend a few weeks in Napa City.

R. W. Church will go to San Rafael next week to attend the meeting of the Grand Parlor, Native Sons of the Golden West.

G. L. Mix does not intend to leave Oakland this summer.

C. O. Alexander—At a furnished cottage in San Rafael.

E. S. Finch and wife will spend a few weeks in the mountains back of San Jose.

George W. Reed and wife have not as yet made their plans for this summer.

Lincoln S. Church thinks he will go into the country in June.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Nusbammer will probably take a trip to the Klamath in June.

Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Fisher will spend the summer somewhere in the country.

John C. Jamieson is considering a trip to Yosemite Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Chapman will go into the country in June, to be gone about three weeks.

Edward C. Robinson intends to spend a week on his ranch at Vacaville and a week at Sissons.

Rev. and Mrs. Francis A. Horton have gone to Haywards for a couple of weeks on account of Mrs. Horton's health. The Dr. will conduct services at the First Presbyterian Church as usual.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Stratton, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Gordon and others will leave soon for the neighborhood of Mount Hamilton. While the ladies are quietly enjoying rural pleasures the gentlemen will fish in La Honda.

Miss Laura Mellen, Miss Grace Healey of Mills Seminary, Miss Sarah T. Merritt of Seminary Park and Miss Carrie McKenzie will spend their vacation at Pomona.

Now that you have all had your say listen to one who has heard all this before.

You think that the places you have mentioned are the places where you will really be in June, July and August. It's long odds that you'll be somewhere far away when the time has really come about. Every year you lay your plans far in advance, and every year you change them when you are buying your tickets. The board is too high at one place, the accommodations are not good enough at the other, and you decide upon another course.

It will be the same this year.

Wait three months and then tell us why you did not go where to-day you said you were going.

BROKEN BONES.

A Lady Who Stepped from a Moving Car and Was Hurt.

Mrs. Elizabeth Steele paid a visit to her little boy at the Sheltering Home yesterday afternoon. When she returned she boarded the 9:30 o'clock Fourteenth-street car at Seventh and Washington streets, intending to get off at Fourteenth and Filbert streets. When the car arrived at that point another lady alighted and Mrs. Steele did not make a move to leave the car. Presently she learned that she had reached the place where she desired to alight and made her exit. The driver did not notice her, however, and just as she was about to step to the ground the car started and down went Mrs. Steele, and her right leg snapped above the ankle. The injured woman was removed to the Receiving Hospital, where Dr. Crowley reduced the fracture. This morning the Superintendent of the car company had the woman removed to the Fabiola Hospital and the company will pay all the expenses of her illness.

Superintendent Morse of the Fourteenth Street Railroad Company was seen at 2 o'clock this afternoon, and asked for a statement of the accident from the company's side of the case. Mr. Morse said that the story as already learned by THE TRIBUNE reporter was not as he had it from his driver and from the lady herself, and thought it best not to say anything about the accident. "I expect my driver in this afternoon to tell me all about it," said he, "and until I see him I will make no statement of the affair. The lady is very unfortunate in that she has no friends in this city and no money. She was employed by Mrs. Betts as a servant girl and they do not want to take care of her. I have had her removed from the Receiving Hospital this morning, and she has been provided for and all her wants will be attended to. I suppose the company will pay all her bills while she is in bed. I cannot tell you anything about the accident nor the name of the driver who was on the car. After I have had a talk with all parties concerned I will tell you what I can."

August Yager, an old man 72 years of age, was very forcibly reminded this morning that he is not as young as he used to be, and therefore cannot be as frisky as a lad of 15. He was employed to go to work on the Laundry Farm Railroad, and in company with a number of men rode on the train to the place where they were going to work. Before the train stopped, however, the men commenced to alight, and Yager not feeling the weight of his years, took a jump, turned a somersault, and fractured his left arm and also dislocated his left shoulder. He was treated at the Receiving Hospital this morning, and is now on his way over the hills to the poorhouse.

Death of Mrs. Boyce.

Mrs. Eliza G. Boyce, mother of S. B. Boyce, of the firm of Harrison & Boyce and of Policeman J. B. Boyce, died yesterday at the residence of the latter, 812 Market street. About five months ago she received a stroke of paralysis, which resulted in her death. She was a native of Ireland and 82 years of age. Besides her two sons in this city she leaves a daughter in Michigan and another in Canada. Her funeral took place this afternoon. The interment was private.

Henry Levy's Place.

From the Vallejo Times it is learned that orders have been received from Washington reinstating A. L. Hatheway in his old place as chief clerk in the department of steam engineering. Captain Henry Levy took Mr. Hatheway's place, and it is quite likely that when Mr. Hatheway returns Mr. Levy will come back to Oakland.

Just a Little Gun.

William Burke, a salesman at Salinger's, attempted yesterday afternoon to extract a cartridge from his pistol. The bullet came out with great ease and passed through his right hand, leaving a painful hole.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

The New Superintendent to Take Office To-night.

A Strange and Unpleasant Scene on Saturday Evening.

Mr. McClymonds Says That He Was the Steadfast Friend of the Gentleman Whom He Succeeds.

The recent city election with its results were full of surprises, and perhaps the greatest surprise of all was the election of J. W. McClymonds as Superintendent of Schools. If Mr. Crawford had been elected over Mr. Campbell the surprise would not have been so great, but that Mr. McClymonds who had been a great friend of Mr Campbell, should have received the five votes that were cast for Mr. Crawford caused much comment.

It was well known that Mr. McClymonds had political ambitions, and he would have been a candidate for County Superintendent of Schools next year against P. M. Fisher, who is accredited with a desire for a third term. But City Superintendent of Schools under the new charter for four years is better than County Superintendent of Schools. Mr. McClymonds is said to have gone to Robert McKillican and to ask that gentleman to use his influence to get a certain Democratic School Director to vote for him after he had got through voting for Crawford.

Mr. McClymonds was found by a TRIBUNE reporter this morning. "I think that every one will agree that I have been as hearty and honest in my support of Mr. Campbell as possible, and I don't think that anyone can find a single hook on which he can hang the assertion that I was unfaithful to Mr. Campbell. I worked for him all that I could, and the less that is said about this matter the better. I think that everything can be satisfactorily explained, and there is a logical explanation to that McKillican statement. I would prefer that he would make that statement, however.

"When the Republican ticket was nominated it was admitted that Mr. Campbell had no show, and I then told Mrs. Campbell that I would try to get the support of the nominees for School Directors on ticket against Mr. Frick. This was before the Citizens' movement. When that came up I supported it as far as the School Directors went, for I believed that Mr. Campbell at least had a reasonable show. Then when Mr. Crawford began to make such headway I thought that if there should be a deadlock that I might have the office. That is all there is of it, and the less said the better."

It seems that Mr. McClymonds has suddenly developed a great suspicion of Mr. Campbell, and he has several times approached that gentleman, saying he was spreading stories about him. This Mr. Campbell promptly denied. On Saturday evening Mr. McClymonds went into the office where Mrs. Campbell was at work and informed her that he had heard the stories that Mr. Campbell had been circulating about him, and that he had stood them long enough and informed her that he did not want her any longer, and ordered her out of the office. Mrs. Campbell said she knew nothing of any stories, and that she would [illegible] office as done in a and imm with Mr.

The story [illegible] cisco morning papers have published, that Mr. McClymonds would resign in favor of Mr. Campbell or anybody else, is utterly without foundation, for so say both Mr. McClymonds and Mr. Campbell.

It is unlikely that the matter will come up at the meeting of the Board of Education to-night. Mr. Campbell will read the minutes of the last meeting, and will transfer his place to Mr. McClymonds. That gentleman will place his wife in the position of Assistant Superintendent.

The Board of Education will fill the vacancy in the Principalship of the Lincoln school, and G. W. Horton will be selected. Mr. Horton is Principal of the Berkeley High school, but was with Mr. McClymonds in the Lincoln school, and for one term was School Director from the First ward.

It has been rumored that the Board of Education may this evening rescind their action in electing Mr. McClymonds, but several members of the Board said that this was without foundation.

Directors Fine and Clement held a consultation with the Board of Public Works this morning in reference to the new High school.

Mr. Campbell says that he thinks it not a big thing for a man in the flush of a great victory to run in from the street on the strength of an idle rumor and be rude to Mrs. Campbell, especially after the nervous strain to which she has been subjected for the past few weeks, and feeling as she does the result of the contest much more keenly than I do.

"The fact is that the first I ever knew of any such rumor as that he would do [illegible] line the position was upon seeing it in the Oakland items of the Bulletin while I was over in the city upon the day in which it appeared. I did not credit it. I did not repeat it. I did not believe it, I paid no more heed to it than to the thousand and one other rumors which have been given currency by very idle tongue and pen.

To a question concerning Mr. McClymonds's loyalty to him, Mr. Campbell said: "To Mr. McClymonds I gave, as I do to every one who seems to be true, the credit of undivided loyalty. It is my hope that I was right.

"For myself, I am looking for what will conserve my faith in men and women, and not the reverse. I shall be ever so glad to learn anything from anybody which will help me in the search, and shall beg to have kept from me whatever will have a contrary effect."

Neither Mr. nor Mrs. Campbell is a candidate for the position of principal of the Lincoln school.

What Happened to the Bartender.

Henry Fitzsimmons hired a horse and buggy on Saturday. At 5:30 o'clock he requested his barkeeper to take the horse and buggy back to the stable. Two hours and a half later the vehicle and horse reached the stable in a dilapidated condition, and Mr. Fitzsimmons has not seen his bartender since. His brother had nothing to do with the buggy.

The Agent of Dr. Merritt.

Stephen W. Purrington has been appointed confidential business agent of Dr. Samuel Merritt. Henry Rogers, who has been Dr. Merritt's agent for many years, now devotes his entire time and attention to his personal business affairs.

A Scrape Scrape.

Detective Shorey recovered in a pawn shop a scrape that had been stolen in the Prescott House from a Mexican war veteran named Davis, employed at the California Door Factory.

A MORMON MISSIONARY.

Judge Gibson Thinks Wilson Would Be a Good One.

"William I. Wilson, come into court," echoed up and down the main corridor in the Courthouse this morning as Bailiff Jamieson stood on the stairway shouting the command by the order of his Honor Judge Gibson who was anxious to look upon the face of the sea captain. But the captain came not. He was not ready to proceed with the examination in his insolvency proceedings. The matter has been pending a year, but it seems almost impossible to secure a hearing. The creditors of the gallant captain are anxious to have him explain matters on the witness stand. His attorney stated to the court that Mr. Wilson is sick with neuralgia, but he knew not where he was, but had been informed by the captain a few days since that he was ill and would probably not be in court to-day. E. E. Whitney, who represents the creditors, suggested that it was passing strange that every time his associate, Fisher Ames, made his appearance in court the captain made his disappearance, and he averred that he is of the opinion that old Wilson had purposely remained away in order to avoid being examined by Mr. Ames, and he therefore informed the court that Captain Wilson is guilty of contempt of court, and he asked his Honor to make an order to have the old man cited to appear to show cause why he should not be punished for contempt. His Honor told the attorney to draw up an order and get Wilson into court to show cause. "He is a very queer man," murmured the court. "I have known him for the past ten or fifteen years. once prosecuted him for trying to smoke a woman out of a house. He looks as meek as a turtle dove. He is indeed a masterious character, and I think he was intended for a Mormon missionary. The fact is he is a smooth article."

Wilson is now out of jail on bail and has had a habeas corpus case pending before Judge Levy for the past year. The attorneys for the creditors expect to have a difficult time in finding old Wilson in order to serve him with the papers.

MUSICAL JOHNSON.

The Zour Lemon Dwops Man Goes to the Poorhouse.

The musical voice of Henry Johnson, the short little man with a very long nose, who used to haunt the theater and other places of amusement, will no longer worry the audience between the acts as he saunters up and down the aisles calling: "French mixed candy! Nice sour lemon drops!" Johnson has gone the way of many others who pursue peddling for a living. His home is now in the poorhouse, and he is a charge upon the county, where he will probably recall many a pleasant or unpleasant incident of the time when he made the maiden happy with his candy and tickled the palate of the small boy with those sour lemon drops that are "good for de first." But Johnson will be musical no more. He was stricken with paralysis a short time since and is now nearly blind. The poor old man states that now that he is old and blind his wife has refused to live with him. He has been sent to the County Infirmary.

QUITE CUSTOMARY.

The Way Things Usually Turn Out at Mrs. McWade's Charity

Mrs. M. H. Chaplin makes charges of cruel ill treatment at the West Oakland Home. Others have done the same, so that Mrs. Chaplin is not singular in this. She says she the pangs of her travail com- a month before she expected for admission to the Home. that she was turned in- from the door of the charity but returning later was admitted and was delivered of a child within an hour. After this her boy, aged 19 months, was taken from her and put in the Foundlings' Home. As usual, she charges Mrs. McWade with all her distress.

Then quite in accordance with custom, Mrs. McWade denies all this. She gives an entirely different account of the affair and says that her home is not a free lunch station. She says that she knows Mrs. Chaplin to be of customary sorrow, and makes the usual hints that she has not a pleasant history.

LICENSES AND SALARIES.

Business to Come Before the City Council.

The City Council to-night may adopt a liquor license ordinance which will fix the license at $100 or $125 per quarter, and which will allow California wines to be sold in unbroken packages without a license.

Councilman Hackett will ask some questions why A. C. Dieiz is not arrested continually for selling liquor without a license.

The Council will decide what the salary of E. H. Benjamin as Assistant Secretary of the Board of Public Works will be. Some of the members of the Council hold that this appointment was not made with a view to economy or reducing the deficit.

An Extraordinary Delusion.

Edgar Shepherd, who is serving a long term in the City Prison for indecent exposure, has shown symptoms of being mentally deranged. He is an elderly man and has a very vivid imagination. He thinks that a lady friend of his has had her neck broken in some kind of a row, and is going about the street with a disjointed vertebrum. Chief Tompkins and Dr. Crowley have subjected him to a preliminary examination, and have come to the conclusion that the man's mind is unbalanced, and in a few days he will be examined more fully. If he is found to be insane he will be turned over to the county authorities as a fit subject for the insane asylum.

The Work of Grace.

The revival services at the Asbury Methodist Church were attended with great interest last week. As a result there were twelve accessions to the faith, and yesterday morning three persons were baptized and seven admitted to the church on profession of their faith. The services will continue during the coming week, the Rev. I. R. Hannon preaching to-night.

"A newspaper item sometimes does a world of good," says Mr. Atkinson, the pastor of the church. "Last week in a few lines you noted our revival. It was not much in itself to be sure, but a lady happened to read it, she came to the meeting that night and was converted."

Dangerous to Man and Beast.

Poundmaster O'Connell killed two glandered horses yesterday belonging to F. E. Shaffer of 522 Fifteenth street. The animals had been suffering for some time and were confiscated at the order of Health Officer Crowley.

He Rode It Away.

Fred Habblier, 23 years of age, was arrested in East Oakland Sunday evening and charged with petty larceny for stealing a bicycle belonging to Ben Lambert. This morning his case was continued to file a complaint.

THE SAME THING.

But Pronounced in Several Different Ways.

Finance and Deficit Are Now the Problems of the Officers.

Auditor Snow Makes an Estimate and Laughs at Ridiculous Stories About Him.

There are fi-nance, and fi-nance, and fi-nance, and they are all second cousins to the def-icit, or the de-fi-it, and the de-ficit that the city is now contemplating. It is not every city that can have a Citizens' ticket elected and a high license agitation and a deficit all at once. The city officers are wrestling with the finances and the deficit, or rather the lack of finances that causes the deficit. The City Council is trying to see what can be done, The Board of Public Works is trying to see what can be done, and the Auditor is trying to see what can be done.

The Finance Committee of the City Council met this morning to look over the old bills left them by their predecessors. This committee has been at work during several days past in scrutinizing all the old bills, of which there are some $15,000 worth. Most of these bills are just claims, and the members of the committee say that indeed they doubt if any of them are wrong, and the only problem for solution is which shall be paid first.

L. H. Wakefield, the chairman of the committee, said that he believed that some 200 bills have been passed by the committee as correct, and will be ordered paid by the City Council to-night. Most of these bills were for labor performed, and for articles of small value that the committee felt sure were correct. There were other and larger bills, such as the water and gas bills for the past two months, that the committee has laid aside for further examination.

"Some bills will have to wait, and we want to pay bills to those who actually need the money rather than to those who can wait," said Mr. Wakefield.

Mr. Collins said there will be several matters come up before the Council this evening. He said that the Board of Public Works had appointed a Wharfinger, and no provision was made in the charter for one.

"The charter does say," said Mr. Collins, "that the Council shall designate and fix the salaries of all officers not fixed in this charter, and so to-night we must pass a resolution creating the position of Wharfinger and fix his salary."

There has also been an attempt made to get the Council to fix the salary of the Police Court Clerk at $125 per month, but the Council holds that the Police Court Clerk holds under the Whitney act and that he is therefore entitled to but $100 per month, and no action will be taken.

The trouble about the finances of the city has extended into the next fiscal year, and some fear a deficit in the funds next year. Auditor Snow has made a statement of this.

"Of course," said Mr. Snow, "this is making an estimate on an estimate, and I am not setting myself up as a prophet.

"In relation to the situation next year, you will notice that much of my estimate for the next three months must not be multiplied by four for one year, for the reason that many items of expense will not be repeated. I find $35,773 in all, of which wharf improvements are $28,373.

Following is the estimate:

AUDITOR'S ESTIMATE, APRIL 8TH.
For three months	$152,473 00
Not returned	35,773 00
Total	$116,700 00
Multiplied by	4
	$466,800 00
Income, one quarter	20,000 00
Multiplied by	4
Four quarters	$ 80,000 00
Taxes, 95 cents on $1,000,000	923,000 00
State school	85,000 00
Total	$188,000 00
Surplus	21,200 00

The manner of making assessments seems to figure largely in this, but nothing has been determined about that as yet.

The statement made in two morning papers that the Auditor would refuse to audit warrants of city officials who drink intoxicating liquors is characterized by Auditor Snow as ridiculous.

GET YOUR GUNS.

An Account That the Sporting Life Gang Is on a Rodeo.

The store of John Swan at the corner of Fourth and Clay streets was entered by burglars last night, who made a successful raid upon the place. Entrance was gained by a window in the rear of the establishment, and among the goods taken were a large assortment of tobacco, cigars, and cigarettes, and several dozen bottles of assorted wines and other liquors. From the appearance of the place this morning the work was done by novices. It is thought to have been another raid by the Sporting Life Gang, and the detectives are working on that thread. This gang has been rather quiet since the last raid along Seventh street, when so many windows were broken, and it is thought that they have again started in on their periodical roundup.

SALARIES AND BONDS.

The Board of Public Works Make Requests of the Council.

A special meeting of the Board of Public Works was held in the Council chambers at the City Hall this morning, all the members being present. The following resolution, presented by Mr. Fitzgerald, was offered and adopted:

WHEREAS, It is provided by the charter of the city of Oakland (Section 73) that the Superintendent of Streets shall keep a public office; and

WHEREAS, Section 193 of the charter provides that all public offices shall be kept open for business from 8:30 o'clock in the forenoon until 5 o'clock in the afternoon; and

WHEREAS, It is also provided by the street law of 1885, section 8, that the Street Superintendent shall make the assessment to cover the sum due for work done on the streets; and whereas it is impossible for one person to attend to the office work and also the outside work;

Resolved, That the Board of Public Works ask the Council of the city of Oakland for authority to employ a clerk for the Superintendent of Streets and that said Council fix the salary of said clerk.

Mr. Fitzgerald also offered the following resolutions which were adopted:

Resolved, That the City Council be requested to fix the salary of the Secretary of the Board of Public Works.

Resolved, That the City Council be requested to fix the bond of the Superintendent of Streets.

This business was attended to this morning, so that it may properly come before the City Council for consideration at the meeting this evening.

A regular meeting of the Board of Public Works will be held to-morrow evening, and in the afternoon the Police and Fire Commissioners will meet.

A STOCK TRANSACTION.

Mr. Gage and His Partners, Carroll Cook and J. C. Bollinger.

A little stock transaction, in which Carroll Cook, David Gage, and J. C. Bollinger were once interested, is the cause of a law suit now pending in the Superior Court. Bollinger is dead, so his executor, Benjamin Haynes, is made a party to the suit. It would appear that Mr. Gage did not realize as much out of the transaction as he supposed he would. He held a note for $1000 against Bollinger and Carroll Cook, and a few days ago he commenced suit to recover the sum on this note. Now Haynes, as executor, comes in and answers, averring that the note was made for the purpose of securing Gage against loss in the mining stock transaction in which Cook, Gage, and Bollinger were interested. It is claimed that stock was purchased, but no accounting and settlement between the parties has ever been had, and none of the stock has ever come into the hands of the executor, and he therefore asks that Mr Gage take nothing by his action, and that he be given judgment for his costs.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Ye Shall Know Them.

Jeff Hellerman, Albert Brown, and Frank Burns appeared before Judge Laidlaw this morning to answer to a complaint charging them with violating an ordinance. The men are employed as fence advertisers for a San Francisco agent, and they were charged with painting signs along the streets of Oakland without a license. In court the men showed that their employer had a license to operate in Oakland, but the City Attorney thought one license not sufficient for more than one man, and upon his motion the matter was taken under advisement until the 16th inst., to allow time to consult the charter about the matter.

A Horse and Buggy Gone.

A telephone message to the Chief of Police from the Chieftain Stables announced that a gray horse and a side bar top buggy had been stolen from the corner of Twenty-first and Lydia streets last night by some unknown person. Detective Holland has been detailed to look into the matter. The buggy was left standing tied to a hitching post in front of a house in that vicinity, and a few minutes after a man wearing a long overcoat walked up and drove away with the outfit. Persons saw the team, but thought nothing wrong when it was carried off.

Bell preached last evening. A good congregation was present, and listened attentively to the plain and earnest words of the speaker, urging them to come and join themselves in a perpetual covenant with the Lord. Four persons came forward for prayers.

Harrison & Boyce being the lowest bidders, the contract was awarded to them.

POLICE!

The Kind of Officers the New Chief Wants.

Sturdy Men Under 35 Years of Age in Demand.

The Military Discipline Enforced at the City Hall by Chief of Police Tompkins.

The Police Department has undergone a considerable change, and Chief Tompkins has instituted military rule around the City Prison. The officers have to walk in the straight and narrow way and look neither to the right nor the left. No visiting will be allowed after 5 P. M., and any doubtful characters will not be allowed to visit the prison at all, unless very good reason can be shown for them to see prisoners. Lights in all the cells are turned out at 10 P. M. Officers are no longer allowed to hang around the City Prison at night when they should be out on their beats. All those, and a number of other rules, have been made and put in force by Chief Tompkins, much to the disgust of some of the officers.

But the patrolmen, and all the members of the police, are on their good behavior, for the ax is liable to fall at any moment. It was intended to drop it to-morrow, but for a certain reason it will be held for a while. The reason is this.

Chief Tompkins has some thirty or forty applications for positions on the police force of Oakland. But he has decided that he wants a good force, and officers who can hold their positions for years to come without having to be retired because of age. He has therefore decided that he will take no one who is over 35 years, or who is under 25 years of age. This shuts out all of the present applicants save three, for the average age of those who have applied for positions is 42 years.

"I should like to receive about ten applications from ten good, healthy young men, between 25 and 35 years of age, and of good height, say five feet seven or eight inches or over. I want to have a good looking young police department. People do not understand the change in the department. Now when a man obtains a good position on the force it is a permanent position as long as he chooses to make it so. In other words, as long as he does his duty and attends strictly to business he can remain here. He cannot be discharged except for good cause."

Chief Tompkins also wants some changes in the doctor's certificate. He wants a minimum height, and suggests adoption of the military requirement of five feet six inches. The maximum age in which a policeman may be appointed in San Francisco is 35 years, and in New York 30 years, and Chief Crowley of San Francisco says that he would make the maximum age in San Francisco 30 years if he had a say about it.

There has been somewhat of a change in the department since Chief Tompkins took charge. The Board of Public Works put the entire management of the department in his hands, and has thus given him a control of the department that no other Chief or Captain ever had. Ex-Mayor Pierce recognized this fact in his brief duty, for one day, as Chief of Police. He says that no Captain of Police has ever been properly supported by the City Council. The men felt that they owed their positions to the same source that their Captain did, and they were consequently independent, and no Captain has ever had proper obedience from his men.

This is true, as any one who knows anything about the Police Department can testify. Those who claimed to have or did have a "pull" did just about as they pleased. They demanded certain beats and got them, and those who were on the wrong side of the political fence were compelled to take the crumbs that fell from the table.

One day Captain Pumyea sent to the City Council the names of twelve officers who were not necessary on the force and who, in his opinion, could be removed with benefit to the force. Captain Pumyea was to do quietly but friendly that he must be mistaken and that the men had qualities that he did not suspect. Captain Pumyea never pressed the matter. He took the hint.

The police have been frequently interfered with in the discharge of their duty, and one day when Captain Thomas was engaged in accumulating evidence against a dive in this city, he was informed by one of the Councilmen that the best thing he could do would be to stop short and not arrest the keeper of that dive. Captain Thomas stopped.

Chief Tompkins has the department entirely in his control, and he has an advantage that no other captain has ever had. He has begun by issuing very strict orders.

LONGITUDE.

The Chabot Observers to Determine Where They Stand.

To-night, if the seeing is good, Professor Davidson, assisted by Charles Burckhalter, will make several series of observations for the determination of the longitude of the Chabot Observatory. Connection will be made with the telegraph system so that the observations will be recorded by the time of the clock of the Lick Observatory. Hitherto the longitude has been determined only approximately, and this action is but a part of the general plan of determining the exact position of every point at which astronomical observations are customarily made upon this coast.

MUSIN.

The Last Night in This City of the Great Violinist.

At the First Congregational Church to-night Ovide Musin will give his farewell concert, with a programme entirely different from any which he has hitherto offered. Musin's programmes are always carefully prepared to appeal to all tastes, from the sternest advocate of severely classical music to the trifler who finds his pleasure in gymnastics and fireworks. As on former occasions, he will be assisted by a good soprano and a fair tenor. After rounding out the week in San Francisco he goes eastward.

Lot 1, 40x100, on Peralta street, 50 feet from Taylor, sold for $2750 to Mr. O'Dell.

The auction sale of the North Alameda tract at Fruit Vale was held Saturday afternoon by Bovee, Toy & Co. of San Francisco. It was largely attended. The following lots were sold: Block 25, facing on Twenty-third avenue, lot 13, David Smart, $650; 14, 15, and 16, Dr. Martin, at $475, $400, and $385, respectively; 17, 18, 19, and 20, J. L. Bey, $434, $385, $385, and $515, respectively; Dr. Martin bought lots 1, 2, and 3 for $320, $325 and $325, respectively; 4, Mr. Richards, $202 50; 5, S. J. Bemboke, $202 50; 6 and 7, Dr. Martin, $210 each; 8, Max Stampf, $215; 9 and 10, L. Kahn, $225 each; 11 and 12, James McMullen, $230 each; 21 and 22, Mr. Richardson, $220 each; 23, 24, and 25, L. L. Lewis, at $220 each; 26, 27, and 28, Dr. Morton, $300, $305 and $320, respectively; 29 and 30, G. L. Lewis, $325 and $410, respectively. These lots were generally about 25x100 feet in size, and those on the avenue and Park street, which were irregular in size, a little larger.

In block 18, lots 16, 17, and 18, facing on Park street, and about 25x100 feet in size, were sold to W. L. Wise for $225, $225, and $355, respectively.

A. A. COHEN'S DIVIDENDS.

The Executrix Wants a Judgment Against W. A. Bray's Assignees.

A short time ago Frank Otis one of the assignees of the estate of W. A. Bray, an insolvent, brought suit in the Superior Court of this county against W. A. Bray and a number of creditors to have the court determine the validity of certain claims. To this complaint Emilie G. Cohen, as executrix of the estate of A. A. Cohen, deceased, this morning filed her answer, in which she denies certain allegations in the complaint. It is alleged that when A. A. Cohen was East his representative by mistake filed a claim against the Bray estate for $66,411 15, when it should have been $85,694 16. Upon his return Mr. Cohen discovered the mistake and immediately wrote the following letter:

To Frank Otis and C. C. Knox, assignees of W. A. Bray: I find on my return here that you have been paying to my representative dividends out of the moneys received by you from the estate of W. A. Bray on the sum of $66,411 15. The amount due to me by W. A. Bray at the time of the assignment to you was $85,694 15. I therefore demand from you payment to me of 38 per cent of $19,283 07, the said last amount being the difference between the amount on which you have paid me dividends and the amount actually due to me at the time of the assignment to you.

ALFRED A. COHEN.

The executrix now asks to be given judgment for $7327 55, the amount being 38 per cent on the sum of $19,283 07, the difference between the amount on which Mr. Cohen was paid dividends and the amount actually due him by Bray at the date of the assignment and for such dividend as may hereafter be declared or collected upon the indebtedness of $85,694 15. J. C. Martin and Alfred H. Cohen are the attorneys for the executrix.

PESACH.

Strike the Blood on the Two Side Posts and on the Upper Door Post.

This day shall be a memorial, says the account in Exodus of the last and greatest plague wherewith the Egyptians were smitten. It shall be kept as a feast throughout all generations. It shall be kept a feast by an ordinance forever. For seven days shall unleavened bread be eaten; even on the first day shall leaven be put away out of every Hebrew house, for whosoever eateth leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day, that soul shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel. And in the first day there shall be a holy convocation, and in the seventh day there shall be a holy convocation, and no manner of work shall be done in them save that which every man must eat, that only may be done.

At 6 o'clock to-night begins the observance of the Passover and services will be held in the synagogue. The first two and the last two days, among the orthodox Hebrews, are set apart for religious worship. The reform congregations only hold services on the first and last day. On the first day, among the orthodox, the first born of each family is expected to fast in commemoration of the slaying of the firstborn of each Egyptian family. On the opening night of the feast the Seder or religious supper is given. The ritual, called the Haggada shel Pesach, is used at this time, and the story of the deliverance of the Hebrews under the leadership of Moses is recited, interspersed with songs and prayer.

Thimbleriggers.

A couple of thimbleriggers reaped a small harvest during the auction sale of lots in the North Alameda tract last Saturday. As the tract is outside of the limits of Alameda, a policeman of that city, who was an interested spectator of the swindling operations, did not attempt to arrest the deft-fingered manipulators, and there were no county officers present.

A Question of Light.

A special election is in progress to-day in Berkeley to decide whether $30,000 worth of bonds shall be issued to purchase the electric light plant.

If the town does not purchase the plant the electric lamps will not be lighted.

A Murderer's Deed.

AMUSEMENTS.

This evening Nelson's great world combination will open an engagement at the Oakland Theater extending over three nights. The company has been presenting a vaudeville in San Francisco and has met with great success, and comes here without the change of a single feature. The seven members of the Nelson family appear in acrobatic specialties. Other members of the company are Adrienne Ancion, who changes her clothes on the flying trapeze; Littlefield, the whistler; Neiman, the ventriloquist; the Coyne sisters, the Wems brothers, and other song and dance people, and Pitrot, the man of disguises and counterfeits of the great and famous.

The Little Tycoon will be given at the Oakland Theater on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday evenings.

San Jose Enthusiasm.

Ex-Mayor Charles D. Pierce and wife returned from San Jose last night. Mr. Pierce highly praised the San Jose people for the interest they took in their hotel project, which resulted in the erection of the "Vendome," one of the finest hotels on the Pacific coast. He said: "The San Jose people when the hotel project was started were just as skittish about its being a success as are many Oaklanders when their hotel project is spoken of. But the San Jose people went to work and formed a stock company. The stock was subscribed for by everybody—merchants, tradesmen, and even clerks in the stores nearly all took $50 worth, and now, instead of losing the money they put in, their stock will sell above par, for the hotel is more than paying expenses." Mr. Pierce is very enthusiastic over a hotel project for Oakland and believes that a great deal of good will come from the project.

The Bar Association Memorial.

Last Saturday evening a meeting of the Alameda County Bar Association was held in the office of John R. Glascock. A committee consisting of W. R. Davis, Victor H. Metcalf, J. C. Martin, Noble Hamilton, and George E. De Golia was appointed to draft resolutions in memory of the late Henry Vrooman. The resolutions will be presented at Mr. Glascock's office to-morrow at 1 o'clock, at which time another meeting will be held.

Crop Reports.

The peach crop is likely to be a failure in the San Leandro region, and cherries promise rather under than over an average crop. There will be hardly any apricots. Plums promise a prodigious yield and pears are setting well.

A Life Made Miserable

By dyspepsia is scarcely worth living. A capricious appetite, heartburn, puzzling nervous symptoms, increased action of the heart after eating, sinking in the abdomen between meals, and flatulence after, are among the successive indicia of this harassing complaint. Two things only are needful for this removal. A resort to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, and persistence in its use. These remedial measures being adopted, a cure is certain. Taken immediately before or after meals, this great stomachic promotes secretion of the gastric juice, the natural solvent of the food. The nervous and bilious symptoms consequent upon chronic indigestion disappear, as the complaint gradually yields to the corrective and invigorating influence of the Bitters. Appetite returns, sleep becomes more refreshing, and as a sequence, the body is efficiently nourished, muscular power increases, and the mind grows sanguine. Use the Bitters for chills and fever, and rheumatism.

DOWN THEY GO.

The Oaklands are still sliding down the bank. They have now lost their third straight game, and this time their old time enemy, the Stockton club, has given them the last shove. The Pets did not play their usual game yesterday. For some reason they failed to find Baker, and the only two hits that were made were scored by Roberts, a member of the Tribune club, who played second base. O'Neill did not play owing to an injury which he received during Saturday's game. This is how the game was won and lost:

DRUNKENNESS
(Or the Liquor Habit), Positively Cured by Administering Dr. Haines' Golden Specific.
It can be given in a cup of coffee or tea without the knowledge of the person taking it; is absolutely harmless, and will effect a permanent and speedy cure, whether the patient is a moderate drinker or an alcoholic wreck. Thousands of drunkards have been made temperate men who have taken Golden Specific in their coffee without their knowledge, and to-day believe they quit drinking of their own free will. IT NEVER FAILS. The system once impregnated with the Specific, it becomes an utter impossibility for the liquor appetite to exist. For sale by all druggists in Oakland. Trade supplied by J. E. Auditor Snow's Figures.

Auditor Snow has given us some useful estimates for the purpose of showing how the city stands in a financial way under the new charter. Such estimates are useful up to a certain point, but they are sometimes misleading. Indeed, our experience of such matters has been that an expert financier can figure out a future surplus or deficit, whichever may be desired, if only he is given sufficient leeway in point of time. It is only when the end of the fiscal year is close at hand, and an empty treasury stares him in the face that the expert is at a loss. For instance, Auditor Snow is reported by a contemporary to have figured for next year a surplus of more than $31,000, and it may be worth while to examine the steps by which he reaches that conclusion. He starts with the assumption that the city may count on an income of $80,000 in the year from licenses, and other miscellaneous sources of less importance. Now, it is not yet certain that the city will have any income from licenses next year. It is useless to to disguise the fact there is every probability of protracted litigation growing out of an increase of the liquor license, and during the pendency of such litigation it is probable there would be no income whatever from this source. We do not say this to influence the action of the Council on the license question, but simply because it is one of the facts which must be faced in estimating the income of the city.

Mr. Snow then proceeds to count $323,950 to be received from the taxes on a total assessment of $34,000,000. An assessment amounting to that sum would be a very material advance on the present figures. Mr. Snow counts in the annexed territory to help to make up his total, but it is uncertain whether property owners there will contribute anything to the City Treasury. So far as we know anything about it, we know that the largest owners of that territory will contest the matter to the last in the courts, and, whether they are eventually beaten or not they will not in the mean time pay taxes to the city. Mr. Snow further intimates that he expects a material increase of the assessment of city property and he is undoubtedly right up to a certain point, but whether that increase will be $1,000,000 or $2,000,000 he does not know. In his own view, so far as he has expressed himself, he is not the Assessor, but only the copyist of the county assessment, and we believe his interpretation of the charter provision in this regard to be correct. Therefore, he does not know how much will be the increase. In fact, it is obvious that his estimate may fall $30,000 or $40,000 short on this single item of taxation, and this would leave us with a deficit. In order that this may be made more clear we give in detail his figures:

INCOME.
One quarter	$320,000
	$80,000
Taxes on a $31,000,000 estimate	$235,000
State School tax	85,000
	$188,000
EXPENSES
Whole fiscal year	166,800
Surplus	$ 21,200

These are Mr. Snow's figures for the fiscal year commencing in July, and we think we have given reasons for doubting their correctness.

On the other side of the account Mr. Snow does not, as we think, make sufficient account of contingent expenses. In fact he makes no allowance for anything of the sort. He seems to think that no money will be required to meet the expenses of municipal litigation, whereas in fact it must be obvious to everybody that the city will have a great deal of litigation of the most important sort to establish the validity of the charter, to settle the meaning of some of its provisions, and to ascertain the rights, duties and liabilities of the annexed territory and its people. We do not in any way underrate the very considerable abilities and industry of the City Attorney, but it must be obvious that with all this press of work in addition to the labor of keeping the city government in a straight legal path under the provisions of a wholly new organic law he will have his hands more than full. There are a dozen other contingences in which expenses may arise not contemplated by Mr. Snow, any of which may come very near wiping out the surplus which he figures.

These remarks are not made to dampen Mr. Snow's ardor or to curtail the amusement which he appears to derive from making rose colored estimates. They are made because the regulation of the financial business of the city for some time to come is not by any means the simple problem which Mr. Snow sets forth, and it is imperatively necessary that all the facts, so far as they are ascertainable, shall be considered. As Mr. Snow seems to have ignored or forgotten the most important of these facts, we have thought it proper to point them out, and we do so in no disparagement of the Auditor, but only with the intention of providing him with the material for a new problem, for which we expect him to thank us.

A Court Martial Is in Order.

Some allowance might be made for the sailors of the Nipsic who got drunk and behaved in a riotous manner at Apia while their comrades on the other vessels were in imminent peril of their lives, but no such allowance is due the officers of the same vessel who hid themselves after their own safety was assured, and neglected to render any assistance in saving life, besides allowing their own drunken crew to run riot and loot the stores. It is stated on good authority that a line could have been thrown from the Nipsic to the Vandalia with little difficulty by means of a rocket or bomb, had the officers of the Nipsic cared to take the necessary trouble. There were one or two honorable exceptions among the Nipsic's officers, and these stood by their work manfully, but their conduct only makes that of the others seem more disgraceful. These men are clearly responsible for the loss of many valuable lives on the Vandalia, and they should be made to answer for their negligence before a court martial.

John P. Jackson.

The appointment of Colonel John P. Jackson to the office of Assistant Treasurer is fit and proper. We should have liked to have seen Colonel Jackson appointed to the more important office of Collector of the Port, and it is an open secret that if he had not in a very disinterested way waived his claims on that place he would probably have been the President's choice. He did this at the wish of the California delegation and for the sake of harmony among the leaders of the party. Colonel Jackson is an old friend of the President. They were schoolmates in boyhood; they practiced law in the same office, and they fought in the same brigade during the war. In the ranks of the Republican party no man stands higher or has done better service. It is right he should have his reward.

THE TRIBUNE is able to refer with some pride to the magnificent account of the hurricane at Apia printed in these columns on Saturday. It was the only account of the storm published in Oakland and was the work of the special correspondent of the Associated Press, J. P. Dunning, who happened to be the only newspaper man who was present during the hurricane. It was a most interesting and thrilling story.

THE Rev. Dr. Horton proposes to lecture on "The Open Saloon" and to examine the reasons for its continuance. The subject is timely, and his treatment of it will interest the man who keeps the saloon as well as the man who does not. A rational, conservative treatment of this subject will be an agreeable change from the usual ranting denunciation, which has grown tiresome.

In the Rain.

I stand in the old gray weather,
In the white and silvery rain;
The great trees huddle together
And sway with the windy strain.
I dream of the purple glory
Of the roseate mountain height,
Of the sweet-to-remember story
Of a distant and dear delight.

The rain keeps constantly raining
And the sky is cold and gray,
And the wind in the trees complaining
That summer has passed away;
But the gray and the cold are haunted
By a beauty akin to pain—
By the sense of a something wanted
That never will come again.

A Business Notice.

Antioch Ledger.

The slim old dude who went to San Francisco this week and bought himself a suit and a half of clothes showed up in great shape with his flowing rope pants, and looked as pretty as a pig with a curling tail. If he had bought his clothes from Meyer & Co. he would now look more like a man, and not so much like Mrs. Hop Sing.

Justice and Journalism in Reno.

Reno Correspondent Virgo Journal.

Last week two juvenile men, with mustaches about as prominent as the fuzz on a new sock, got into an altercation, in which one indulged in slapping the other's peach jaw. This caused Eternal Justice to hit both her scales for the first time in Reno, and Justice Jaquette, after gazing long upon the poise thereof, mulcted the belligerent in $5 and costs. Great praise is due the reporter, who took all the speeches down in shorthand and condensed them to the above convenient size, without regard to beauty of style, age, sex, or previous condition.

Thorwaldsen.

C. M. Waage lectured before the Ebell Society on Saturday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. J. C. Campbell.

Himself a Dane, he chose for his theme the great sculptor of Denmark Thorwaldsen. He described the great Thorwaldsen museum in Copenhagen and followed it up by an account of the sculptor's life and works. His struggles to attain recognition were brought up, and the lecture ended with an account of Thorwaldsen's tragic death in the theater.

THREE TIMES VISITED.

Burglars Again Enter the Residence of Rev. W. F. Fleenor.

Rev. W. F. Fleenor is the pastor of the Harrison Street Baptist Church. The reverend gentleman has lived in this city but a few years, and strange to say that during that time he has been robbed three times. When Mr. Fleenor lived in East Oakland his house was entered by burglars, and a change of residence did not prevent him from being the victim of the evil designs of a second crime, and last night his house was entered for the third time, and his present residence is a different house from the one he formerly occupied. The gentleman's residence is now at 711 Twentieth street. After returning from his church last night Mr. Fleenor hung his overcoat on the rack in the hallway. This morning when he went to get the coat it was gone, so also was a coat belonging to Mrs. Fleenor. Nothing else, as far as can be learned, was taken.

ATHENIAN ELECTION.

The Annual Choice of the Club's Directors and Officers.

On Saturday afternoon and evening the polls were open at the Athenian Club for the election of officers and directors for the next year. There were four tickets in the field, and the Regular ticket was elected with one exception. The officers elected were: President, W. J. Mathews; Vice President, A. E. Magill; Directors, Thomas Bennett; J. G. Edwards, W. A. Mix, F. S. Stratton, W. F. Southard, J. W. Phillips, and A. Waterman.

The tickets in the field were called "Regular," "Straight," "Citizen's," and "Anti-Ham and Eggs."

A $3500 residence is in course of erection on Twenty-third avenue, near Nineteenth street.

Peter Johnson, formerly of the Union Hotel, has entered the jewelry business with H. C. Paulson in San Francisco.

The store of Mrs. Kate Tuprich was entered by burglars on Saturday evening, and a quantity of cigarettes and tobacco was taken.

P. Crowley was thrown from an express wagon on Saturday and badly injured. The horses were running away at the time, and the wagon upset. The wounds about his head were very painful.

West Oakland.

A number of extra hands are wanted at the Sash and Door Factory.

The Central Hotel, at the corner of Seventh and Wood streets, is being repaired.

The little Leach boy who cut an artery in his foot a few days ago, is improving.

Mrs. E. Surryhine, who has been visiting the family of W. F. Price, returned to her home in Santa Rosa, Saturday.

Another lying in hospital has been established in this part of town. It is located at the corner of Thirteenth and Willow streets.

Margaret Raymond has purchased from Elizabeth Mack the property at the southeast corner of Thirty-sixth and Magnolia streets for $1200.

A musical and literary entertainment will be given at the Athenæum next Thursday evening for the benefit of the Kindergarten and Reading room.

A Change of Time.

A new time card went into effect on the South Pacific Coast Railway, narrow gauge, yesterday. Hereafter trains will run as follows:

Trains will leave Fourteenth and Webster streets for San Jose and Santa Cruz at 8:15 A. M. and 2:45 P. M. The 2:45 P. M. train runs daily, except Sundays. Train leaves daily at 4:45 P. M. for San Jose and Los Gatos and all way stations. Train leaves at 7:45 A. M. Sundays only for San Jose, Los Gatos, and Santa Cruz. This train is the regular summer excursion $1 train to Santa Cruz.

Trains will arrive from Los Gatos and San Jose at 9:45 A. M. and from Santa Cruz and San Jose at 11:45 A. M. and 6:15 P. M. The Sunday excursion train returns, leaving Santa Cruz at 4:25 P. M.

Incorrect Information.

Citizens may be interested in knowing that the cards on the different mail boxes, stating the times that mail is collected therefrom, are wrong, and they should not rely upon them when wishing to post a letter in time for any particular mail. The collections are made according to the arrival and departure of the overland trains, which have been considerably changed since the issuance of the present cards. New cards have been applied for from Washington, but have not yet arrived, and for information relative to the departure of trains Oaklanders are referred to the Postmaster.

Mrs. Livermore's Lecture.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will attend Mrs. Mary Livermore's lecture at Hamilton Hall tomorrow evening in a body. Seventy-six seats have been reserved for the ladies. After the lecture there will be an informal presentation of an address to Mrs. Livermore by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. The Nationalist Club will also be presented to that lady.

A Bad Boy.

A 15 year old boy named Karstadt was the only occupant of the City Prison in Alameda yesterday. He was arrested as a runaway. He has a widowed mother living in Alameda, but prefers to roam about the streets in daytime, and dodge at nights in barns, than to stay at home and assist his mother. He is deemed incorrigible, and will be sent to the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society, San Francisco.

THE GIRLS DO NOT READ.

An Embarrassing Mistake of Two Thirsty Maidens.

There evidently are two people in Oakland who do not read Councilman Hackett's speeches, and who do not know that all the special entrances for women to the saloons in Oakland have been closed. That is what two very well dressed young women failed to discover the other day, and why Police Clerk O'Brien has been laughing to himself ever since.

"They were a couple of exceedingly pretty girls," said Mr. O'Brien, "and they were dressed very nicely. One had on a black beaded dress, and the other a black and white striped dress, and they were coming down Fifteenth street. Suddenly they stopped and began to look into the window of a milliner's store, but at the same time they cast furtive glances up and down the street. Suddenly one nudged the other. The street was clear, and they made a dash for the side door of that saloon. The side door was closed, and the girls looked pretty cheap. Just then they got a glimpse of Judge Laidlaw and Deputy District Attorney Church watching them. They trotted around the corner.

The Park Theater.

The Park Theater, formerly Tivoli on Fourteenth street, will reopen under entirely new management Monday April 22d. William J. Kohler has been carefully rehearsing a strong stock company for some time past, and for the opening will produce the great theatrical drama Louis XI. It is his intention to place before the Oakland public Shakespearian plays, interspersed with society and comedy dramas. Mr. Kohler was formerly one of the leading members of the late W. E. Sheridan Company, and has received flattering acknowledgment from the press throughout the United States. He has also taken great pains in selecting a fine orchestra, having engaged Dr. Thomas, one of the leading directors of this coast. This in itself is a rare treat to lovers of first class music. After due consideration the management will not open Sunday evenings or have liquors sold in this theater.

It Was Made to Mr. Marsh.

EDITOR TRIBUNE: In your issue of April 12th appeared a local item headed "Dr. Southard's Promise," in which item I am credited with having said that Dr. Southard gave me his absolute promise to not only vote for Mr. Marsh for Secretary of the Board of Health, but to do everything in his power for him. This is an error, from the fact that I never spoke with the doctor about the appointment; hence his promise never could have been given to me. V. W. GASKILL.

People Wonder

WHEN they find how rapidly health is restored by taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. The reason is that this preparation contains only the purest and most powerful alteratives and tonics. To thousands yearly it proves a veritable elixir of life.

Mrs. Jos. Lake, Brockway Centre, Mich., writes: "Liver complaint and indigestion made my life a burden and came near ending my existence. For more than four years I suffered untold agony. I was reduced almost to a skeleton, and hardly had strength to drag myself about. All kinds of food distressed me, and only the most delicate could be digested at all. Within the time mentioned several physicians treated me without giving relief. Nothing that I took seemed to do any permanent good until I began the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which has produced wonderful results. Soon after commencing to take the Sarsaparilla I could see an in my condition, my appetite began to return and with it came the ability to digest all the food taken, my strength improved each day, and after a few months of faithful attention to your directions, I found myself a well woman, able to attend to all household duties. The medicine has given me a new lease of life, and I cannot thank you too much."

"We, the undersigned, citizens of Brockway Centre, Mich., hereby certify that the above statement, made by Mrs. Lake, is true in every particular and entitled to full credence."—O. P. Chamberlain, G. W. Waring, C. A. Wells, Druggists.

"My brother, in England, was, for a long time, unable to attend to his occupation by reason of sores on his foot. I sent him Ayer's Almanac and the testimonials it contained induced him to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla. After using it a little while, he was cured, and is now a well man, working in a sugar mill at Brisbane, Queensland, Australia."—A. Attewell, Sharbot Lake, Ontario.

A NEW SPIRE.

A Model of Modern Church Architecture.

The New Building in East Oakland of the Methodists.

Farewell Services in the Old Church Building, Which the Congregation Has Outgrown.

Another church spire. On the corner of Eighth avenue and East Seventeenth street, facing the sun from the moment he rises until he sinks behind the smokes of San Francisco, is the new Methodist Church. It cost $20,000 to build it. Ten thousand more will complete it. There are seven exits to let the people out in case of fire, or other alarums necessitating a sudden leaving.

Another church of the same design cannot be found in the State. This one is a fac simile of a church erected in Delaware, Ohio, some time ago, and recommended by those who have seen it as a model for convenience and artistic design. Every inch of space has been utilized.

There are two main entrances in the front—one on either corner—which lead directly to the auditorium. Between these is a large vestibule, including closets and cloakrooms, opening into the street and connected with the main entrances. The auditorium and chapel, each having a seating capacity of over 700, are divided by eight huge sliding doors. When these are thrown back no one would imagine for a moment that by the simple manipulation of a few unseen doors, our large room could be transformed into two. The gallery extends continuously from one side of the church loft to the auditorium and Sunday schoolroom back to the other side again. The chapel, where the church services will be held for the present, will be used in the near future as the Sunday School Department. Several apartments or stalls are arranged along its sides, with folding doors, in such a manner that when opened the occupants are brought face to face with the pulpit. On this floor is the Infants' Department, the Youths' Department, Normal Department and Alumni Department. The last three will occupy the main part of the chapel. By such a disposal of the church department the rooms for the congregation, and also the Sunday School classes being on the same floor, it is necessary only to open a few doors to make the departments in one large room within sight and hearing of the pulpit. Rooms are divided off in the gallery of the Sunday School Department, and in the lower or basement part of the church are the kitchen, pantry, closets of all descriptions, the dining room, and ladies' reception parlor. The dining room will comfortably seat 350 persons.

The ventilation is undoubtedly good. Although the system is simple it is effective and will ventilate if anything less than unroofing will. The sides of the building are occupied by windows, of very fine stained cathedral glass.

The opening services of the new church will be held next Sunday. At that time a sermon will be preached by Rev. C. C. Stratton, D. D., President of Mills College, and addresses by Rev. Drs. Bentley, J. K. McLean, E. I. Dille and E. S. Chapman. In the evening Rev. A. C. Hirst, D. D., LL.D., President of the University of the Pacific, will preach.

GOOD BY TO THE OLD.

Farewell Services in the Little Church That is Outgrown.

The little old Methodist Church in East Oakland never held a larger congregation than yesterday morning, when the Rev. Dr. Heacock preached a farewell sermon, not to his congregation, but to the old church. His text was: "But my servant Caleb, because he had another spirit with him, and hath followed me fully, him will I bring into the land whereunto he went."—Numbers XIV., 24.

He said, after making a humorous comparison between the people of Israel and his own church: "Two topics will be considered in my talk this morning, Faith and Energy. Now there's a good deal in intellect, but education makes a man see stars. It seldom takes him beyond. Darwin and Spencer are all right so far as scientific knowledge goes. The universities, often the hothouses of unbelief, are all right so far as they go in the cultivation of the mind, but there are things beyond that they have never touched. Faith takes a man to the end of his journey, whether he knows all the gulches are crossways or not. I'm going to believe, in connection with our new church, that God has as much for us in Canaan as in our comparative Egypt.

"There are obstacles in our way wherever we turn. Common sense is to be used in all things, instead of dogma. Many people do not know how to live, because the Bible does not tell them whether its wrong to oil their hair or not. Why, God would have to fill our libraries with explanations and illustrations; he would have to issue a new code every week in order to satisfy some of our friends.

"Energy spent in the right direction is what keeps the universe in order. Sometimes people do not come to church because they or their pastor lack energy. Without life and vim and 'get up' our society would stagnate."

In closing the pastor referred to the church which they were about to desert in a very pathetic way: "This church is the indication of beginning. Can we all say to the old church to-day, 'I have never run away from service because there were softer carpets or a larger choir, a bigger organ or a more eloquent preacher elsewhere?' If this old church could unfold the memories of the past years tell what it has seen and what it has heard, I think I hear it say, 'I've been here every day. I'm sorry I could not give you better ventilation. I cannot aspire to a position in the new church. What are you going to do with me? I will tell you what I am going to do: I'm going to put my bottom dollar, every dollar I am worth, into the new church. And when it is done I will be then as I have been here. If it burns, I will be in the ashes, and the winds will mourn over our dust as one and the same, the old and the new church.'"

A FAREWELL POEM.

"Out of the Old Church and Into the New."

The church last evening was crowded on the occasion of the closing public services in the time honored edifice. The pastor, Dr. Heacock, officiated. Several hymns were sung, Scriptural lessons were read, and prayer was offered by J. W. Watson, a local preacher, one of the organizers of the society and for years the superintendent of the Sunday school, which he organized in Washington Hall over fourteen years ago. Remarks were made by the pastor and by C. C. Lombard and Mrs. H. Weeks, the oldest members present.

Mr. Watson also gave an interesting address of a semi historic and hortatory nature, concluding by reading the following original poem:

FAREWELL TO THE OLD CHURCH.

"Out of the old church into the new."
'Tis the law by which the universe grew:
From the small to the great, from the child to the man,
'Tis a part of the All Wise, the Infinite plan.
We rejoice in the change which his goodness hath wrought,
And that we have a place in the Infinite thought.
But, while our best instincts exult and expand
At present success and a promise so grand,
A weak human tear at the parting will flow,
As memory reverts to the dear "long ago."
To the dear little church where we worshiped so long,
Instinct with devotion, exultant with song.
Though humble in structure and homely in form,
Each part had its own and peculiar charm;
And so, as we leave, with a last look around,
It seems like departing from hollest ground.
For, oft as we knelt in devotion and prayer,
It seemed that Jehovah in presence was there.
There many to God were in infancy given,
There many were born to the kingdom of heaven,
And there, too, our last loving homage we gave
To some whose remains we consigned to the grave.
And so there comes blent with our hail and adieu
A "thank God" for the old, and 'praise God" for the new.

WORDS FROM THE PULPIT.

Special Services in Observance of the Day Called Palm Sunday.

Rev. H. H. Rice's Opinion That All the Saloons in Oakland Should Be Closed by Law.

A week before the passion of Christ he entered Jerusalem riding upon a colt, the foal of an ass, whereon never man had sat, and the people strewed his pathway with the leaves of palms, and cried aloud, "Hosanna to the Son of David."

Next Sunday in the ecclesiastical calendar is celebrated as Easter, the feast of the resurrection, and yesterday was fully observed by the Catholic Church as Palm Sunday, and without special ritual the Episcopal Church noted it in the collects, in the gospel, and in the lessons of the day.

At St. Patrick's Church high mass was sung at 10:30 o'clock by Rev. J. B. McNally, rector and celebrant, Father Whyte, deacon, and Father O'Grady, subdeacon. The Sisters of St. Joseph and the Christian Brothers in charge of the parochial schools attended in a body. Miss Henneberry directed the choir, composed of Miss Julia Robinson, Miss Vinie Cullen, Miss Mollie Hennings, Miss Nellie Henneberry, Miss Lizzie Ricard, Miss Blanche Price, Miss Mary Farrell, and Miss Lena Richard.

During the celebration of the mass branches of palms were laid upon the high altar while the choir sang Hosanna. The collect and the lessons were recited and the palms blessed with solemn benediction and ritual aspersion. The sub-deacon presented a consecrated palm to the celebrant and the congregation crowded to the altar rail where upon their knees in reverence they received the symbols of the day, and others were distributed by the altar boys throughout the church. Father McNally's sermon was upon the spiritual meaning of the feast and the need of preparation for the Easter Eucharist.

At other churches the ceremonies were similar.

AMONG THE CHURCHES.

A Few Words From the Pulpits About the City.

At the Asbury Methodist Church Rev. Thomas A. Atkinson in the evening preached from the subject, "Christ at the Door of the Sinner's Heart." In the course of his talk he said, among other things, "If you should go to a friend's door and knock, and hear him on the inside locking and bolting the door, how long would you stand there? Now the real English of the lesson taught in the text to-night is that we should open our hearts to the friend who knocks and calls without. God isn't going to come down and drag us into heaven by the hair of the head. He absolutely can't do it so long as man says "I won't." The will is almost omnipotent. It can shake the fist of brutality in the face of the Almighty; it can tear the bandages off the bleeding limbs which the Great Physician has so kindly bound. It is almost God himself."

At the Tenth Avenue Baptist Church in East Oakland yesterday morning, the Rev. Dr. Dean, who has recently returned from his missionary work in far away China, spoke in general of benevolent Christian works in heathen land, and congratulated the churches of this State for their hearty co-action in such matters.

James Brougher and Charles A. Bucher are present at the convention of the Baptist College in Sacramento as delegates from the Tenth Avenue Baptist Church. They also represent the interests of the Lankershim Society.

At the Second Presbyterian Church last evening the pastor, Rev. H. H. Rice, delivered a sermon from Habakkuk, second chapter and fifteenth verse: "Woe unto him that giveth his neighbor drink, that puttest thy bottle to him and makest him drunken also." He cited this to show that liquor sellers are under divine condemnation and should be under human condemnation also. "Those who by evil example," he said, "leads others into drunkenness break the law of love of their neighbors, and those who do by their business break the law of the land are a public nuisance." On the authority of this text he would make three propositions: Saloons as a public nuisance ought to be abolished. "The people of Oakland," he said, "have the power to abolish saloons within the city limits, and this being the case, it is the duty of the people of this city to abolish the traffic as a nuisance. Alcoholic liquors should be sold only for medicinal purposes. The selling of liquor should be abolished the same as that of opium, arsenic, or other poisonous drugs." He expressed the opinion that every saloon in Oakland should be closed by July 1, 1890.

FOR STREET WORK.

Erroneous Assessments in Alameda.

Charges of Fatal Mistakes by a Superintendent of Streets.

Assessments for Improvements of Crossings Made Without Regard to the Statute.

There is trouble in Alameda that may be serious, and may take some time to entangle. This trouble is in regard to assessments for sewers, and grew out of the assessments being made out contrary to the State statute. The course pursued was to assess the property unregardless of the quarter block system. Assessing by the latter plan is no easy task for the Assessor. The amount of calculations is large. In this city where the system has been in use for some years, as much as six weeks have been spent in figuring out the assessments on one job of street or sewer work. The work done in the old City Marshal's office in this city, where all the assessments were computed, has been scrutinized on several occasions by Oakland and San Francisco attorneys for the purpose of picking flaws in it, with the intention, if any should be discovered, of contesting the assessment. It was only last week that the San Francisco expert on street assessments was examining the assessments of a San Francisco capitalist who owns property on the line of a recently improved street. This owner was dissatisfied with the amount of the assessment, and desired to beat it if it was possible. Mr. Benjamin, the Deputy Marshal who made out the assessment, showed the expert the books containing the charges and the diagrams of the work. After looking the work over carefully the expert pronounced it correct. Owing to the assessments on both street and sewer work in this city being made out according to law, and in a correct manner in other respects, there has been no difficulty in collecting the money. Sometimes the Council, in its haste in passing an ordinance authorizing street work to be done, has made blunders in the notices of intention. As far as known, none of these mistakes were allowed to go undetected in the Marshal's office. When discovered the matter would be reconsidered by the Council and new and corrected resolutions passed.

It is said the present system of assessing was devised by C. T. H. Palmer of the Oakland Paving Company. This company makes out its own assessments, which it turned over to the Marshal for corrections, if necessary, and for approval.

The course pursued in Alameda, as far as sewer work is concerned, is said to be altogether different. The work of figuring out the assessment rests with the Superintendent of Streets. Until the new Superintendent assumed the duties of the office the assessments, as already stated, were made out illegally. Instead of assessing by the quarter block system, as the State law provides, an easier, though illegal and discriminating, plan was adopted. The whole assessment would be apportioned among the property owners along the line of the improvement, and each one made to bear his pro rata of the assessment.

By the quarter block system the assessment of the street crossings, which do not front on any one's property, would be assessed to the persons owning property on the four quarter blocks nearest the crossings. Where streets cross each other at right angles and where the blocks and lots are all of a uniform size it is easy to compute the assessments by this system, but where the streets intersect each other at angles other than right angles or where, say where one street comes into another at an angle of forty degrees and on the opposite side of the street takes a turn, as it were, and forms an angle of thirty-five degrees, then the calculations become more intricate owing to the angles and the way the lots at the corners are cut up. Another great bother and the most trying to the computer of assessments is where the streets are not opposite each other, but come into the street upon which the assessment is being made out, at various distances and perhaps at different angles. In this case it takes work to make out an assessment on a sewer or paving job. About the longest of this kind was the work on Grove street and that on Park street within the last year.

In Alameda there have been some extensive street improvements. These embrace sewer, paving and grading work. Some of the sewers put in are quite long, one in particular being 7000 feet, or over a mile long. It is learned that the assessments on these, as already stated, are illegal. The work by the paving companies may be excepted, for as far as known these companies made out their own assessments, and as they are in accordance with the provisions of the State statute they are probably correct. But not so with the sewer work.

The new Superintendent of Streets heard that the system in use was wrong, and investigated the way the work was done in this city. After looking at it he requested Mr. Benjamin to call at his office in the evening and initiate him in the way of making the assessments, Mr. Benjamin did so and made out one of the assessments. It was handed over to the City Clerk, who makes, or causes to be made, the collections.

In speaking to a reporter to-day on this subject, Mr. Benjamin said that the Clerk took an assessment made out in the old way to Mr. Justick, the President of the Town Trustees, for approval. That gentleman had heard that the former plan of making out the assessments was illegal. He accordingly looked into the matter and found it wrong. He therefore refused to sign the assessment presented, but said he would place his signature on the one made out in accordance with the provisions of the statute.

Thus the matter stands, and as it is now known that the assessments for sewer work in Alameda is illegal, and as there is a large number of assessments on former contracts yet uncollected, much trouble in regard to their collection is expected.

THE BOARD OF HEALTH.

Dr. Woolsey Files His Certificate of Appointment.

Dr. Woolsey filed his certificate of appointment as a member of the Board of Health and took the oath of office on Saturday morning. It was stated in a contemporary that under the charter he should have filed his certificate and taken the oath of office within ten days after his appointment and that he was a day late. This is erroneous. Of course, when the charter announces that a certificate of election must be filed within ten days after appointment, it means ten days after the appointee shall have received official information of his appointment. He filed his certificate within eight days after he received the certificate sent to him by City Clerk Brady.

DUNCAN CAMERON'S ESTATE.

His Widow Fails to Find Any Will Among His Papers.

Duncan Cameron, deceased, did not dispose of his property in his lifetime, either by will or otherwise. It was for this reason that his widow, Annie L. Cameron, appeared before Judge Gibson this morning with a petition to be appointed administratrix of his estate. She testified that she had searched all the effects of her husband, had gone through his papers, but had failed to discover a will, and she was of the opinion that he died intestate. The property left by him consists of personal property of the value of $10,000; real estate worth $35,000. The yearly rents amount to $2100. Upon this showing the widow was appointed administratrix with bonds fixed at the sum of $25,000.

SOCIAL CALENDAR.

Gregarious Pleasures of the Eastertide.

Colored Eggs and Confectionery for the Season.

The Society Events of Last Week Not Recorded on Saturday—The Fonda-Meyer Wedding.

The future of society is somewhat hidden by the April showers. Society gets the blues as every one else does. Its representatives are human. Why things are dull is because they have not been scribbled with the signature of the climate. Now many people do not believe in the climate, because they cannot whisper secrets in his ear and put an armful of confidence in him. He may change his mind in fifteen minutes and spread the news from Oakland to Seattle. But happy is he who puts his trust in the mum old moon, the sly old moon whom the astronomers believe to be dead. What secrets he could unfold of what he has seen while peeping through the eucalyptus boughs at the dark side of the garden fence.

In spite of weather and the protests of the climate, the people will color the Easter eggs and see to it that their pastimes, if not numerous, will be good. Some of the coming events of importance begin at this period.

The Loyal Legion of East Oakland Methodist Church will give a grand opening concert, which promises to be a real treat. Excellent musicians, all of whom are well known, will be engaged. The programme consists of several vocal selections by Miss C. Northey-Roma, Miss L. Albrecht, H. H. Lawrence Jr., instrumental numbers by Miss Harriett Hale of New England Conservatory, Miss Carrie Bowers, the child pianist of San Francisco, Professor Carlmueller, violinist, and Professor Topeka, violoncellist, both of San Francisco, will assist. The accompanist will be Miss Minnie Weeks. A Hallet & Davis piano, which was presented by a friend to the church, will be used on that occasion. This concert will take place next Thursday evening, April 18th.

The Elite Social Club has made extensive preparations for an invitation Easter party Saturday evening, April 20th. Easter confectionery will be distributed and the orchestra enlarged for the occasion.

Professor Wolf announces an Easter candy egg party, to be given Saturday evening, the 20th of April.

Professor Simmons will also give an Easter egg party at his academy, on Easter eve, the 20th.

On the 23d the Lyon Post of the Grand Army will give a social.

The sixth annual ball of the Hancock Rifles will be given on the night of the 23d at Hancock Hall.

Sunset Rebekah Degree Lodge, No. 106, will celebrate the seventieth anniversary of the organization of Odd Fellowship by a literary entertainment and social dance at Hamm's Hall, West Oakland, Thursday evening, April 25th. No pains will be spared to make it a success.

On the 26th the United Cadets will give a dance at Cavalry Hall.

Professor Wolf will give a card cologne party at Kinkner's Hall on the 30th inst.

Professor Wolf's maple sugar party will be given May 1st.

The Elite Social Club will give a May dance.

The King's Daughters will meet at the home of Mrs. Pearce, 744 Tenth street, on Wednesday next.

FONDA-MEYER.

The happy wedding of Miss Emelie Frances Meyer, aged 19, and George H. Fonda, aged 35, occurred Saturday night at the Congregational Church in West Oakland. The ladies of the church had decorated the church in tasteful profusion with flowers, wreaths, ferns, blossoming boughs, grasses and silken draperies.

The bride was dressed in nun's veiling and Indian silk, trimmed with orange blossoms.

The bridesmaid, Miss Josephine Ulrich, wore a white cassimere lace robe. J. Alvin Ulrich was groomsman.

As Mendelssohn's wedding march was struck up, the couple came down the aisle and took their place at the flower strewn altar, where the Rev. Dr. Frear tied the nuptial knot.

Then the relatives of the contracting parties were invited to the residence of the bride's mother, where supper was spread and pleasure was in store for all. As the little band passed from the church, and the host of friends were turning homeward, some one stole up into the belfry and gave the solemn old bell such a ringing that he must have thought, if he had time to think, that the day of jubilee had come.

Those invited to the supper were: Rev. Dr. Frear, Mr. and Mrs. F. Mettmann, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kratz, Mr. and Mrs. H. Chomberg, William Schomberg, Dr. P. W. Fonda and wife, Jesse Fonda, brother of the bridegroom, Mrs. C. Meyer, the bride's mother, J. G. Ulrich, Miss Josephine Ulrich, bridesmaid, J. Alvin Ulrich, groomsman, Miss Lillie Ulrich, Miss Tillie Ulrich, R. G. Wenzel, Miss Hermiena Wenzel, Miss Emilia Wenzel, Mrs. H. W. Weiss, Mrs. C. Steinmann and sons, James Robinson, Mrs. M. E. Gould, Miss Mabel and Eddie Meyer, and Archie Ballard.

Mr. and Mrs. Fonda have both been residents of Oakland for many years, and are both highly esteemed among their numerous friends. Mr. Fonda has bought out the share of his father, Dr. P. W. Fonda, in his printing establishment and is a very prosperous young man.

The organist for the evening was Miss Della Bracket.

Numerous presents, costly handsome, and useful as well, were received. None deserve better claims to a happy future than this esteemed couple.

WATERMAN-WOODS.

Waldo Waterman was married to Miss Hazel Wood, daughter of Miss Jesse Wood, Chico. Mr. Waterman is the son of Governor Waterman who is now a resident of Oakland. The wedded pair left for San Diego, their future home.

WEDDED.

On Tuesday evening the marriage of Miss Cora Taylor, daughter of Colonel and Mrs. C. L. Taylor, and William Van Dyke, formerly of Oakland, occurred at the Taylor residence in San Francisco. The wedding was private, the decorations elaborate and becoming, while the bride was more than charming. Mr. and Mrs. Van Dyke will go to their intended home in Los Angeles.

MERRY SURPRISE.

A merry evening was spent at the residence of Mrs. Mason, Temescal, where some friends had gathered to surprise her son, J. Frank Mason, it being his birthday. Late in the night the party dispersed, with many congratulations and well wishes for Mr. Mason's future birthdays.

SOCIAL MOMENTS.

The young friends of Mrs. W. T. Van Zant and Miss Carrie Van Zant, Mr. Van Zant's sister, were invited to their home on Eighth street for a social time. Cards and sociability, tapering off with the good things, occupied the evening moments, much to the satisfaction of all present. These were invited: Miss May White, Maytie Covert, Sadie Keller, Maude Greathead, Carrie Van Zant, Mrs. W. C. Van Zant, John Keller, A. A. Long, Dr. C. L. McCracken, Mr. Morris, Mr. Greathead, A. A. Denison.

POPCORN SOCIAL.

The Young Woman's Christian Temperance Union gave a popcorn social at the Methodist Episcopal Church on Friday, the 5th inst. It was entirely satisfactory. The programme was as follows: Opening chorus, by the union; prayer, Rev. Mr. Hicks; solo, A. K. Anthony; recitation, Lizzie Taylor; solo, Lillie Doty; remarks, Mrs. Richardson; popcorn wit, by audience; recitation, Minnie Guernsey; popcorn wit continued; trio, "Good-night," Eva Reeves, Lilly Doty and A. K. Anthony. After refreshing themselves the party dispersed.

GERMAN MUSICIANS.

Emil Reihl's double quartet band was entertained last Wednesday night at the home of Herman Althof on Filbert street. On special occasions the club meets at the homes of its members instead of at its own rooms. Mr. Althof is an honorary member, and has often graciously entertained the club. Choice California grape juice and the finest cigars were at the gentle mercy of the guests. Professor Riehl and Miss Fugel played on the piano, while G. Rau and Mr. Warncke, baritone and tenor, rendered several beautiful solos.

OLD AGE SURPRISED.

A few of the friends of Mrs. Drake gathered at the Old Ladies' Home on Friday, to make her eighty-eighth birthday a glad one. It was a sure enough surprise, but Mrs. Drake greatly enjoyed it, and also the many presents that reminded her of childhood, when she loved to surprise the aged with presents and all sorts of pleasant things. At 3 P. M. tea was served. Those present were: Mrs. Brownell, Mrs. Boothe, Mrs. A. S. Bierce, Mrs. W. H. Blackman, Mrs. A. A. Baker, Mrs. C. W. Kinsey, Miss Hanna, Mrs. J. G. Stoddard, Mrs. C. J. Rader, Mrs. H. Dakes, Mrs. D. A. Ainsworth, Mrs. Haines, Mrs. Hardenburg and George O. Rader.

MISS GREATHEAD'S PARTY.

At the home of Miss Maud Greathead on East Eleventh street Miss Maud entertained a number of her friends. The company found no trouble in willing away the time. Those present were there for a good time. These were present: Mrs. Lucus, Miss Mallory, Miss Carry Van Zant, Miss Sadie Keller, Mr. Buckington, William Angus, Dr. C. L. McCracken, A. A. Long, W. R. Morris, John Keller, and A. A. Denison.

THE KITTO BIRTHDAY SURPRISE.

A little company bent on surprising George Kitto, on his eighteenth birthday, went quietly to his home on 2230 Adeline street, April 2d, and a pleasureable time followed. After the category of games had been exhausted, mirth gave way to uncompromising appetite, and a supper was partaken of. These formed the company: Miss Laura Kitto, Miss Adah Semmun, Miss Grace Athearn, Miss Minnie Wright, Miss Emma Bucklee, Miss Lena Tand, Miss Hannah Benter, Miss Hattie Austin, Miss Lizzie Blanchard, Miss Susie Culver, Miss Estelle Duvoise, Miss Nellie Mormun, Miss Agnes Collins, Miss Mamie De Foy, Miss Mary Benter, Miss Annie Johnson, Miss Mabel Kitto, Master George Kitto, Charles Graff, Frank Graff, Frank Griffin, Jimmie Edgar, George Austin, Charley Kitto, Jimmie Carner, Ben Duvoise, Joe Stut, Eddie Kitto, Tom Robinson, Charles Denney, Bertie Kitto, Mr. and Mrs. O. Kitto, Mrs. Blanchard, Mr. and Mrs. William Kitto.

A TEA.

A charming tea was held at Mrs. Carpenter's residence on Fourteenth street last week, to which a number of those who tip the savory cup were invited. No one without knows what was said and done during those pleasant two hours—but the tea saucers do.

GOSSIP.

Lieutenant Charles McKinstry, United States army, son of Judge and Mrs. E. W. McKinstry, is connected with the army corps of civil engineers, and has been appointed to the military post at Fortress Monroe. He was sent there because it is hoped that the climate will improve his health. Lieutenant McKinstry, as a boy, was a resident of Oakland.

For the relief and cure of the inflammation and congestion called "a cold in the head" there is more potency in Ely's Cream Balm than in anything else it is possible to prescribe. This preparation has for years past been making a brilliant success as a remedy for cold in the head, catarrh and hay fever. Used in the initial stages of these complaints Cream Balm prevents any serious development of the symptoms, while almost numberless cases are on record of radical cures of chronic catarrh and hay fever after all other modes of treatment have proved of no avail.

Wonderful Results often follow the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla. Severe cases of scrofula, upon which other preparations have been powerless, yield to the peculiar curative powers of this medicine. Distressing cases of dyspepsia, excruciating complaints of the kidneys and liver, agonizing itch and pain of salt Results rheum, disagreeable cases of catarrh, and aches and pains of rheumatism, are cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. It purifies the blood, and at the same time tones the stomach, creates an appetite, and gives strength to every function of the body. Give it a trial.

General Debility

"For four years my wife suffered with large tumor bunches on the glands under the arms, and general debility of the whole system. She became so poor in health that we were on the verge of despair regarding her recovery. Physicians did not seem to understand her case; at all events she never derived any benefit from their treatment. She finally concluded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. The immediate effect was so marked and satisfactory that she continued to take it, and this is the result: She has gained in weight and is stronger and in better health than she has been for years. The bunches under her arms have diminished, and we believe Hood's Sarsaparilla will be too much for them in time." J. J. NORCROSS, 226 Commercial Street, Boston, Mass.

From 84 to 111 Pounds

57 SMALL FRUIT FARMS 57

OF 20 ACRES EACH,

—IN THE—

Winters Early Fruit Belt

At Auction

By order of Messrs. McMAHAN & YOUNT,

Saturday, April 20th, 1889.

This property is part of the McMahan and Yount Ranch, located at the base of the foothills about 4½ miles northwest of the town of Winters, Yolo Co., Cal.

It may properly be called a part of the celebrated Pleasants Valley, which adjoins it on the south, where the fruit from the foothill orchards has achieved a far and wide-spread celebrity for its earliness and delicious flavor. Here foothill land is eagerly bought up whenever offered for sale, at from $200 to $450 per acre. The property we offer is in every respect as good, but as it is the first subdivision of a large holding heretofore devoted almost exclusively to stock raising, the first sales of land will necessarily result in low prices, and buyers will reap the benefit of a

Heavy increase in values, within a brief period of time. It must not be inferred, however, that fruit-growing on this land is by any means an experiment. There is a small orchard of assorted fruit trees and a full bearing orange tree, near the present dwelling, and purchasers can determine from these the adaptability of the soil, although the trees have been little cared for and scarcely ever cultivated.

All Tillable Land.

This property consists of small valleys surrounded by low rolling hills, upon which there are oak and other trees in scattering groups. There are numerous sites for pretty homes and charming slopes for orchards and vineyards on these elevated places.

The Soil

is a rich chocolate-colored loam, and has been pronounced by several of the leading fruit growers in Vaca Valley especially adapted to the growing of peaches, apricots, almonds and oranges.

No Irrigation.

The rainfall in this section is from 24 to 27 inches; the heaviest being near the foothills. Such a thing as a failure of crops is therefore unknown. Excellent water for domestic purposes is obtained at a depth of about 25 feet.

A Delightful Excursion

Through the Vaca Valley and Winters Orchards.

Those who have visited this beautiful section will appreciate the pleasure of a day's excursion there. Those who have not been, should not fail to take advantage of the cheap rates of this excursion to spend a day in the country. We will run a special train from San Francisco, Saturday, April 20th, at 7 o'clock A. M., stopping only at Benicia, Elmira and Vacaville, (unless requested beforehand to stop elsewhere) at the following rates:

Lendall Gray, purser of the steamer Santa Cruz, visited his parents Friday.

J. Nissen will close the term of his dancing school with a party on the 27th inst.

Mrs. Cardoza has opened a fruit and vegetable store in her building on Davis street.

Miss Sallie Eckfeldt of San Francisco is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. M. Estudillo.

Miss Minnie Davidson of Oakland was the guest of Miss Lucy Sturtevant last week.

The Ladies' Society of the Presbyterian Church will meet at the residence of Mrs. A. S. Dubois on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. H. Motz, who has been ill for some time, was taken to St. Luke's hospital in San Francisco Tuesday for treatment. Her recovery is doubtful.

Lorin.

James Lambert returned from San Joaquin county yesterday.

H. R. Buenetti, wife and son, were visiting Ed Harmon last week.

E. R. Hollin has returned from his farm in Fresno to spend a few weeks with his family. He is very much pleased with the outlook for the coming summer in that part of the State.

At Lorin Lodge Friday evening two new members were initiated, and on the same evening at a meeting of the Executive Committee of the District Lodge it was determined to hold the next District Lodge at Livermore on Saturday afternoon and evening.

The people do not yet fully appreciate the new changes in the Postoffice. Lorin now has the same connection as Berkeley and Golden Gate. The residents must get over the habit of posting their mail in San Francisco and elsewhere and patronize their home office.

The election for school bonds took place Thursday afternoon. Though there was scarcely any opposition a very good vote was polled, showing the interest everyone took in the occasion. The bonds call for $10,000, to be paid in ten years. A lot has already been bargained for, and the building will be commenced as soon as possible.

Alameda.

A number of young ladies and gentlemen of this city have organized a tricycle club.

The new electric light mast for Bay Farm island will be placed 800 feet south of the drawbridge.

John Currie, the Scotch evangelist, and George C. Stebbins, the gospel singer, began special evangelistic services yesterday in the Congregational Church.

The additional sum of $75 has been appropriated toward defraying the expenses for the improvements on the Webb avenue engine house. The total cost will be over $1200.

A lamp exploded in the residence of E. D. Judd, on Santa Clara avenue, a few nights ago, and the house had a close call from destruction by fire. The family were asleep at the time, but the crackling of the flames awoke Mr. Judd. He immediately realized the situation, and coupling a garden hose to a hydrant extinguished the flames, but not until considerable damage was done.

F. P. Armstong of the firm of Armstrong & Quellen, Oakland undertakers, was arrested a few days ago for removing a dead body from the city limits without first obtaining a permit from the Health Officer, as required by ordinance. Mr. Armstrong informed the City Recorder, before whom he was tried, that he called twice at the office of the Health Officer, but on both occasions failed to find him in. The Recorder dismissed the complaint against him.

T. L. Hierlihy, a prominent member of the Local Option Alliance, in speaking about the recent election, said: "We are perfectly satisfied with the selection of E. B. Mastick and C. S. Neal as City Trustees. We feel that they are good men and will not allow the saloon men to dictate to them. We know that Mr. Mastick sympathizes with our movement and we can place the fullest confidence in him. The local option movement was well represented in the Non-partisan Convention. We went there to prevent the nominations for the municipal offices from being made by the crowd which was successful two years ago, and we left the hall perfectly satisfied with the actions of the convention."

NO SECOND ARREST.

The Chief of Police and His Action in Leaving Mr. Dietz Alone.

Chief of Police Tompkins, when the fact that Mr. Dietz's saloon was still open was brought to his notice, said that he would make no further arrest until the case had been brought to trial. As there seemed to be an opinion in the minds of some that the Chief would find it hard to justify his action, the question was referred to Mr. Chapman.

"Certainly, Mr. Tompkins is right," was Mr. Chapman's answer. "He has done his duty in arresting Mr. Dietz. He should do wrong to arrest him a second time. The law assumes the innocence of every man until his guilt is proven and no man can be arrested twice for the same offense. This act of Mr. Dietz is but one continued action and does not consist of separate acts."

Lawyer Ladd's Mistake.

When Lawyer Ladd commenced a suit in the Superior Court on Friday, wherein Mary Ann Babcock is the plaintiff and James A. Johnson is the defendant, he little suspected that a suit of the same character is still pending before Judge Ellsworth, the gentleman before whom he refuses to try a case because he says he is a layman. Lawyer Ladd simply filed a dismissal of the first action signed by the plaintiff, but did not have the case dismissed on the register, neither did he have it dismissed in open court, so in the eyes of the law the suit is still pending before Judge Ellsworth. So, if Lawyer Ladd inquires into the matter, he will find that he now has two suits for the same claim pending in the court.

Austin, Scott Co., Ind., Feb. 16, 1889—I have given Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a thorough trial, and find it to be all and more than is claimed for it. I would not be without it for double what it costs.—FRED. J. NICHOLS. Sold by Wetmann & Henry, 1170 Broadway.

The Latest Novelty.

G. R. Read, 1012 Washington street, was recently imported some oil grates with steam radiators, which are attracting great attention; they are a new devise for heating rooms and claim to produce the greatest heat at the least expense; they are made to burn either oil or gas, and are very ornamental and free from odor. All who are interested in decreasing their fuel bill will do well to inspect these stoves, which may be seen in operation at above place.

THE TRENTON.

Her Wreck Attributed to Insufficient Engine Power.

WASHINGTON, April 15.—Naval Constructor Hichborn, acting chief of the Construction Bureau, does not credit the report that the fires of the Trenton were extinguished by floods that came through the hawse pipes. He says that these pipes were placed on the berth deck to allow a heavy forward gun to be worked. The effect was to make the vessel ride at anchor more easily than if they had been placed on the upper deck. In a heavy sea the water would come through them, and complaint had been made that they kept the deck wet. Still they were furnished with rubber packed bucklers which, if applied, makes it entirely incredible that enough water should have come through to extinguish the fires. Undoubtedly the cause of her wreck was insufficient engine power. The English ship Calliope, which escaped by a bare margin of a half knot an hour to windward, has 5000 horse power to 2700 tons displacement. The Trenton has 8100 horse power, but her tonnage is 3900.

Defective Indexes to Real Estate Records.

An important decision to people investing in or loaning money on real estate has just been rendered by the Supreme Court in the case of Southwick vs. Davis. Southwick had the title carefully searched from the indexes in the Recorder's office in El Dorado county to Davis' land, and took a mortgage. When he came to foreclose the mortgage it was discovered that at the time he took the mortgage there was a homestead on the land, recorded but not indexed. His attorneys had no way to find it except by the index; nevertheless the Court holds the homestead valid although not indexed, and holds the mortgage void. Until within the last year there has been in this county no way of examining the voluminous records in the Recorder's office except by the index.

In this county the Land Title Company of this city, and in San Francisco the California Title Insurance and Trust Company have written up the records from the beginning by examining each instrument, and so have an abstract of each piece of land made independent of the indexes. The decision is therefore not of as much importance in this county and in San Francisco, as it would have been before this was done, as by this every instrument is found, whether indexed or not.

Scrofula is transmitted from parent to child, and thus becomes a family inheritance for generations. It is, therefore, the duty of every scrofulous person to cleanse his blood by a thorough and persistent course of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

IN A LOVELY VALE.

An Excursion to a Charming Spot in the Sonoma Valley.

Sightseers Charmed at the Pleasures of a Day in the Famous El Verano District.

As every summer approaches a general exodus takes place from all of the larger cities of the State, and hundreds and thousands of families move out and away from the hot and dusty cities to seek the invigorating country air at the many health resorts and watering places in the State. Most of these country life seekers go to the hotels, and but few have their own suburban homes wherein they can enjoy every luxury known to large cities, combined with the simplicity and ruggedness of true rural life. Land is cheap in California and, as has been said by every person visiting the State, California possesses the loveliest spots of rural landscapes in the world. Knowing this and taking advantage of what before long will become a general custom, a company of gentlemen was formed for the purpose of building country residences and disposing of them to city people.

This company, known as the Sonoma Valley Improvement Company, is composed of the following officers and directors: President, Charles F. Crocker; Vice President, George H. Maxwell; Treasurer, P. S. Douty; Secretary, Lemen P. Scoville; William Wood and E. A. Frank.

This company has purchased what is known as the town of El Verano and the Orange Villa tract adjoining the town.

The location is about one and one half miles west from the old town of Sonoma and is unquestionably the fairest valley under the skies of California.

On the 27th of this month the company intends to sell at public auction town lots and farms from one to twenty acre tracts, and yesterday an excursion was made by prospective purchasers to the site of the property.

The Sacramento train leaving San Francisco at 8 A. M. was taken by a large number of the party, and at the Oakland mole and at Sixteenth street station many others boarded the train and sped away to Port Costa, where the steamer Amador was boarded and took the party to South Vallejo, at which point the cars of the California Pacific Railroad rushed along over creeks, through cuts, upon innumerable bridges, over grand stretches of country, until at last El Verano was reached.

At this time a slight drizzle of rain was falling, but had not the effect of dampening the ardor or the clothes of the excursionists. The party sought seclusion under and in the handsome two story depot, and in a few moments when the shower had passed they entered the dozen or more vehicles of every description, and guided by the genial George H. Maxwell, whose carriage led the way, drove to the office of that breezy and bright little paper, the Sonoma Valley Weasle.

Here they were met by that rural humorist, Thomas Bewsy Holmes, the editor, and William H. Keefer, the enterprising business manager.

All registered their names, and Mr. Keefer hustled around getting subscriptions like a farmer making hay while the sun shines.

After a thorough inspection of the press and printing arrangements of this best of all California country journals, carriages were again entered, and a drive for miles was taken over excellent country roads. This is one of the best features of El Verano, as all the streets and roads are covered with a hard gravel topping, which makes driving easy and comfortable. Away over the country, sometimes on the roads, then again crossing level fields, completely covered with a veritable patchwork of variegated colors. Yellow poppies, blue blossoms, and even little white wild forget-me-nots in profuse luxuriance spoke well of the richness of the soil.

At last up a sidehill, then a dismount and an indescribably grand view before the eyes. Exclamations of delight came from the pleased city people, who wondered at the extreme beauty of the landscape. Bouquets were picked, short rambles made, and a return drive of a few short miles past orange groves with real, live oranges on the trees, walnut groves, almond tree avenues, orchards of every possible kind of fruits, and—yes, even olives, figs, and chestnuts.

Their arrival at Agua Caliente Springs, where the party were entertained at a luncheon such as could only be had in a country of milk and honey. On the table were set in grand profusion solids and fruits of every clime, which are grown and can thrive only in the lovely climate of Sonoma Valley.

Then the ride back to the station. Fording creeks, up small hills, and down shady dells, at length at the station. Here a stay was made for an hour, when walking parties were in order. Then the party broke up into groups and walked all over the loveliest town site in all California.

There are at present some score of houses in course of erection, and A. W. Pattiani of Oakland has a contract for the building of thirty more. Those already built are of the most modern styles, and present the unique appearance of city houses on country farms. The block of stores, of which already the lower story is finished, will compare favorably with any business block in Oakland or San Francisco in point of size and architectural beauty.

This whole tract of rich valley land will be sold at auction on Saturday, April 27, 1889, and at the same time town lots will be sold.

The Orange Villa tract, heretofore known as the Mixford and Carriger farms, will be sold in ten acre subdivisions. Adjoining the town site is a tract of 230 acres, in the center of which is a beautiful knoll covered with magnificent oaks and commanding a view overlooking the entire Sonoma valley. It is the intention to erect an elegant hotel on this knoll to cost $20,000. Around this knoll are to flow several streams to be brought from the Sonoma creek. The company is making improvements costing an expenditure of over $200,000.

Never before in the history of the State has such an opportunity been presented to persons desiring a country home. Imagine the advantages of quick transit to San Francisco, and to be able to live in the country and still be within ready reach or the metropolis. It is confidently expected that the sale will be an unprecedented success, and from the party of visitors to El Verano yesterday many expressed their intention of buying a home in this California Eden. Those who composed the party yesterday were E. A. Vining of San Francisco, George L. Birkmaier of San Francisco, Stanley Stevenson of San Francisco, F. H. Furry, H. M. Miller, A. W. Pattiani and wife of Oakland, R. Frank Clark, Henry A. Crane, M. Strauss of Alameda, Dr. A. F. Merriman of Oakland, Mr. and Mrs. M. Laidlaw of Oakland, C. M. Waage, Mr. Rolza of Oakland, Professor Charles T. Wilkinson and wife of Berkeley, W. J. Coey and wife, Custom House, San Francisco, W. I. Wilson, H. P. Squire, John McDonald, Mrs. Scheiffelin, Mrs. E. Pattiani, B. A. Stevenson of Oakland, John Chaplain of Oakland, M. Russell and wife of Oakland, H. M. Matthews of San Francisco, Miss Gaudieur of Alameda, Lemor Schoville of San Francisco, W. Doty, Oakland, F. P. Furey, Alameda, Adna A. Dennison, R. Balmas, Clinton Folger of San Francisco, H. Reed, C. H. Shaw, George H. Maxwell.

During the week and including the day of sale, the 27th inst., agents will meet every train with carriages and take prospective purchasers all over the grounds to be sold.

Remember, this will be the opportunity of a life time to get a piece of the most charming suburban country in the State.

The Same Old Story

Was asked Dr. Bunett the other by a lady patient, "Will you give me full instructions concerning my diet during treatment?" The doctor replied I want you to follow your customary mode of living, eating what your appetite craves within the bounds of reason, as I will prepare the gastric juices of the stomach, according to our individual case, as I always treat each case according to the indication present. I have now over fifty chronic cases under treatment in Oakland and San Francisco, and to those who will call at my office I will show facts and credentials, so the doubting can call on any of the number, as many have done in the past week to satisfy themselves concerning my treatment. Office, 1069 Broadway, corner Twelfth street. Chronic diseases a specialty, especially indigestion, sympathetic heart trouble, and skin disease. Consultation free in all cases.

Hans Von Bulow.

Has again appeared before an American audience.

At all of his recitals he has selected the Knabe piano as being his preference and the instrument has already received the highest recommendations at the Bulow recitals.

The Knabe piano ranks as one of the leading instruments, and its renown and reputation will be added to by its use by so eminent an artist as Hans von Bulow.—Music and Drama, New York, April 6th.

In Lovely San Luis Obispo.

The present terminus of the new construction of the Southern Pacific Company is Santa Margarita, in the beautiful Santa Margarita valley, San Luis Obispo county. A great credit and much is said will be made on behalf of the Southern Pacific Company by Beggs, Ferguson & Co., on Saturday next. A special railroad excursion will leave the depot, Fourth and Townsend streets, S. F., on Friday, April 19th, at 10:20 A. M. The fare for the round trip will be only $7.

More Attractive Than Comic.

It is said that Jeffreys Lewis will soon add The Lady of Lyons to her plays, but a number of important changes are to be made in the Bulwer. One of the most noticeable changes will be in the third act, where Melnotte, as the Prince, describes to Pauline his beautiful home in Italy. He will continue and assure the lady that all his clothes are made by Joe Lancaster, the artist tailor in Oakland, who makes the finest clothes at the most reasonable rates ever offered. This will be quite an advertisement for Lancaster, who surely deserves it, as his clothes are beyond doubt the finest to be had.
